

Harrison (Harry) W. Henry, age 85, passed away at the Israel House in Ames, Iowa on Wednesday, December 5, 2018.

Harry was born in Winterset, Iowa, to Paul and Agnes Henry on January 30, 1933. He graduated from Colo High School in 1952 and then served four years in the Navy during the Korean Conflict. After leaving the Service, he worked in State government for 35 years. He married Donna Hagen in 1959, and together, had three daughters. Harry and Donna enjoyed traveling together, as well as spending time with family and friends. Harry's special interests and hobbies included listening to music, enjoying the many Scotties they owned through the years, and planting trees and tending to a conservation area he created. Some of his favorite times out and about were to watch his grandchildren play football, basketball, and soccer and going out to lunch with his family.

Harry was preceded in death with the passing of a daughter, Linda.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Donna; his brother, Dean Henry; daughters, Diana (Randy) Watts and Paula (Keith) Hohensee; grandchildren, Danielle (Dustin) Springer, Christopher (Stephanie) Watts, Patrick Watts, Nate Hohensee, Caitlyn Hohensee, and Luke Hohensee; and great-grandchildren, Haley, Colin, Elijah, and Zachary.
