

Services Held At Colo for R. Farren, 46

COLO — Funeral services for Richard Farren, 45, a Colo implement dealer for many years, were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the United Methodist Church with burial in Colo Cemetery.

The Rev. James Louk officiated and pallbearers were Ray Weir, John Niland, Glen Presnall, Donald Wilson, Glenn Olson and Ray Cummings.

Mr. Farren died of a heart attack Tuesday, Nov. 25 at Community Hospital East, Marshalltown.

Mr. Farren was a member of the Story County Hospital board and a former president of the Colo School board. He belonged to the Shrine.

Surviving are his wife, Marguerite; two daughters, Mrs. Tim Dykstra of Newton and Jean Farren of Sumner; a son, Mark, at home; a brother, Wayne Farren of Colo; two sisters, Mrs. Robert Lathrum of Winterset and Mrs. Kenneth Winsor of Des Moines, and a grandchild.