

ANNE KENNEDY

Norwalk

Anne D. Kennedy, 91, of Norwalk died of leukemia Wednesday at Regency Care Center there. The body has been donated to the University of Osteopathic Medicine and Health Sciences, and memorial services will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Kennedy was born in Colo and had lived in Bondurant before entering the care center a few years ago. She had been a homemaker and a member of Bondurant Christian Church.

Surviving are two sons, Clayton and Bruce, both of Des Moines, and a grandchild.

Merle Hay Funeral Home is handling arrangements.
